

Workshop
The Institutionalisation of Therapeutic Practices in India
Social and Legal Perspectives

Venue : Jawaharlal Nehru Conference Hall
French Institute of Pondicherry

Programme

Thursday 7th December

9:00	Welcome tea
9:20	Welcome Address, by Jean-Pierre Muller
9:30	Introduction to the workshop, by L. Pordié
9:45	Session I: Designing analytical lines: General views on institutionalisation
	The institutionalisation of medicine from East to West Anne-Marie Moulin (CNRS-CEDEJ, Cairo)
	Local needs vs. global demands: Trends in institutionalisation of Indian medical practices Leena Abraham (Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai)
	Of the esoteric, the exoteric and the professional: Modes of institutionalising medicine in India Harish Naraindas (Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi)
	The moral character of medical standardization Laurent Pordié (IFP / CRéCSS, Aix)
11:00	Tea break
11:15	Discussion: Axis for the analysis of the institutionalisation of medicines in India
12:30	Lunch at the Institute's Gardens
14:00	Session II(a): Making institutions & practicing institutional medicine
	The institutionalisation of astrology in Indian Universities. Ideological, historical and social perspectives. Caterina Guenzi (CEIAS-EHESS Paris / IFP)
	Negotiating Western science and the State. The case of the institutionalisation of indigenous medicine in Kerala Burton Cleetus (IFP)
	Institutionalisation and growth of homeopathy in time and space in India Anne-Cécile Hoyez (Univ. of Rouen)
15:00	Discussion: Medical institutionalisation and the State
16:00	Tea break

16:15	Session II(b): Making institutions & practicing institutional medicine
	Role of associations of experts in the revitalisation of Siddha medicine Brigitte Sébastia (IFP / EHESS, Toulouse)
	The making and unmaking of cure. Eye treatment in Siddha medicine V. Sujatha (Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi)
16:50	Discussion: The fate of institutional Siddha medicine
17:30	Closing remarks of Day 1
19:30	Dinner at The Promenade
Friday 8th December
9:30	Session III: Institutionalisation and the market Pt. 1: Micro and macro businesses
	From “greenish leaves” to “herbal Ayurvedic treatment” : Professionalising Narikuravar medicine Gabi Alex (South Asia Institute, Heidelberg)
	From home to market: Responses, resurgence and institutionalisation of Ayurvedic manufacturing from 1830s to 1920s M.S. Harilal (Center for Development Studies, Thiruvananthapuram)
10:15	Tea break
10:30	Discussion: Reflections on institutional business and Indian medicines
11:30	Experience sharing. Free discussion on international development and the institutionalization of indigenous medicine. with Yoji Kamata (ADF, Yokohama, Japan)
12:15	Lunch at the Institute’s Gardens
14:00	Session IV: Institutionalisation and the market Pt. 2: Legal issues
	Institutionalising medicinal plant management in Kerala: Forest control, rights of use and participation Lucie Dejouhanet (Univ. Paris X / IFP)
	Intellectual property rights for traditional medicines: Where does India stand? N. Lalitha (GIDR; Amhedabad)
	Geographical indications: a legal tool adapted to protect medicines and their producers? Delphine Marie-Vivien (CIRAD / NLS of India Univ., Bangalore)
15:00	Tea Break
15:15	Discussion: Institutionalisation, legality and illegality
16:30	Time allotted for small groups discussions (arranged on convenience) at the Conference Hall, Dhanvantari Chamber and individual offices
18:00	Closing remarks and word of thanks, by Laurent Pordié